

With Still Alive but in a Different Way, Zitter take their hard rock music into a more melancholic, personal direction. The passing away of a dearly beloved made Fred Z (vocals/bass), B Gustaf (guitars) and Macalico Adeo (drums) to write songs, that lyrically, has a dark, yet passionate side unprecedented in the Zitter catalogue.

At the same time, the band stays true to their hard rock and punk influences from the 1970's and 1980's. Therefore, the songs on Still Alive but in a Different Way, still vibrates with that catchy and melodic music they like to call vultureistic beak n' roll machine music.

On the songs Personal Hero and No Room, Malin Hween appears as guest vocalist, adding that sparkle that ignites the heart.

Still Alive but in a Different Way is released in December 2017 on the bands own label Vulture Nest Productions.

Songs from previous Zitter discs appear on compilations released by 3000Records, on the DVD Cowabunga Extravagance (Seven Films) and in several films and YouTube-clips by the Swedish horror-comedy movie-makers Rotten Soulz. The live performance of Personal Hero at China-teatern, Stockholm, Sweden, is the bands most streamed video clip on YouTube.

E-mail: zitterswan@gmail.com

Home page: www.zitter.se

Facebook: www.facebook.com/zitterswan

YouTube: <http://www.youtube.com/user/Zitterswan/videos>

Music available on iTunes, Google Music, Spotify and other music digital distribution platforms.

